

The background image is a photograph of a modern interior. It features a warm, terracotta-colored wall. A white, minimalist staircase with a wavy, sculptural handrail ascends from the bottom left towards the top right. In the foreground, a white, cube-shaped table holds three pieces of pottery: a small brown vase, a large white amphora with two handles, and a small brown cup. To the left, a portion of a framed artwork is visible. The overall aesthetic is clean and contemporary.
